

National Play Therapy Week was FUN!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the social content during National Play Therapy Week! Your comments and sharing adds so much to our community!

Bennisha McKinney won a $25 Amazon gift card in our drawing! Hope she find something fun!

In honor of National Play Therapy Week, several baskets with goodies and information were passed out throughout NWA to pediatrician's offices.

We wanted to thank for their services to our community and continue to educate about play therapy as a evidenced-based treatment!
